If the applicant receives a majority vote of the Board of Directors, he shall be declared elected to membership and shall be advised by written notice.

- (c) Applicants for REALTOR® membership shall be granted provisional membership immediately upon submission of a completed application form and remittance of applicable association dues and any application fee. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of membership. (amended 3-25-2012)
- (d) The Board of Directors may not reject an application without providing the applicant with advance notice of the findings, an opportunity to appear before the Board of Directors, to call witnesses on his behalf, to be represented by counsel, and to make such statements as he deems relevant. Section 4. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation

Applicants for REALTOR® membership shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within 60 days of application will result in denial of the membership application.

Note: Orientation programs must meet the learning objectives and minimum criteria established from time to time by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®. (Adopted 1/01)

Section 5. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training

Effective January 1, 2001, through December 31, 2004, and for successive four year thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association shall be required to complete quadrennial ethics training of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another association, the State Association of REALTORS®, the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, or any other recognized educational institution or provider which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any four year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new four year cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy this requirement shall be considered a violation of a membership duty for which REALTOR® membership shall be suspended until such time as the training is completed. (Adopted 1/01)

Members suspended for failing to meet the requirement for the first four (4) year cycle (2001-2004) will have until December 31, 2005 to meet the requirement. Failure to meet the requirement by that time will result in automatic termination of membership.

Failure to meet the requirement for the second (2005-2008) cycle and subsequent four (4) year cycles will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any four (4) year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated. (Adopted 1/01, Revised 5/05)

Section 6. Status Changes

- (a) A REALTOR® who changes the conditions under which he held membership shall be required to provide written notification to the Association within thirty (30) days. A REALTOR® (non-principal) who becomes a principal in the firm with which he has been licensed or, alternatively, becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to REALTOR® (principal) Members but shall, during the period of transition from one status of membership to another, be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a REALTOR® (principal). If the REALTOR® (non-principal) does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within thirty (30) days of the date they advised the Association of their change in status, their new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the Board of Directors.

A REALTOR® who is transferring their license from one firm comprised of REALTOR® principals to another firm comprised of REALTOR® principals shall be subject to all the privileges and obligations of membership during the period of transition. If the transfer is not completed within fifteen (15) days of the date the Association is advised of the disaffiliation with the current firm, membership will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the Board of Directors.

Note: The Board of Directors, at its discretion, may waive any qualification which the applicant has already fulfilled in accordance with the Association's Bylaws.

- (b) Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant.
- (c) Dues shall be prorated from the first day of the month in which the member is notified of election by the Board of Directors and shall be based on the new membership status for the remainder of the year.

Section 2. Any Member of the Association may be reprimanded, fined, placed on probation, suspended or expelled by the Board of Directors for a violation of these Bylaws and Association Rules and Regulations not inconsistent with these Bylaws, after a hearing as provided in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the Association. Although Members other than REALTORS® are neither subject to the Code of Ethics nor its enforcement by the Association, such Members are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and conduct their business and professional practices accordingly. Further, Members other than REALTORS® may, upon recommendation of the Membership Committee, or upon recommendation by a hearing panel of the Professional Standards Committee, be subject to discipline as described above for any conduct, which in the opinion of the Board of Directors, applied on a non-discriminatory basis, reflects adversely on the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, and the real estate industry, or for conduct that is inconsistent with or adverse to the objectives and purposes of the local Association, the State Association, and the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 3. Any REALTOR® Member of the Association may be disciplined by the Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the Association, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association.

Section 4. Resignations of Members shall become effective when received in writing by the Association of Directors, provided, however, that if the Member submitting the resignation is indebted to the Association for dues, fees, fines, or other assessments of the Association of any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries, the Association may condition the right of the resigning Member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

Section 5. If a Member resigns from the Association or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint pending, that Board of Directors may condition the right of the resigning Member to reapply for membership upon the applicant's certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics proceeding and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel.

- a. If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to arbitration continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated, provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a REALTOR®.

The membership of all other principal, partners, or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined Member, or until readmission of the disciplined Member, or unless connection of the disciplined Member with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed, whichever may apply. Further, the membership of REALTORS® other than principals who are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined Member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined Member with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed or unless the REALTOR® Member (non-principal) elects to sever his connection with the REALTOR® and affiliate with another REALTOR® Member in good standing in the Association, whichever may apply. If a REALTOR® Member who is other than a principal in a firm, partnership, or corporation is suspended, or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership, or corporation shall not be affected.
- (e) In any action taken against a REALTOR® Member for suspension or expulsion under Section 6(d) hereof, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® Member and they shall be advised that the provision of Article VI, Section 6(d) shall apply.

(Amended 12/03)

Section 2. Dues. The annual dues of members shall be as follows:

The annual dues of each Designated REALTOR® Member shall be in such amount as established annually by the Board of Directors, plus an additional amount to be established annually by the Board of Directors times the number of real estate salespersons and licensed or certified appraisers who (1) are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors, or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed with such REALTOR® Member, and are not REALTOR® Members of any Association in the state or a state contiguous thereto or Institute Affiliate Members of the Association. In calculating the dues payable to the Association by a Designated REALTOR® Member, non-member licensees as defined in (1) of this paragraph shall not be included in the computation of dues if the Designated REALTOR® has paid dues based on said non-member licensees in another Association in the state or state contiguous thereto, provided the Designated REALTOR® notifies the Association in writing in writing of the identity of the Association to which dues have been remitted. In the case of a Designated REALTOR® Member in a firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited to licensees affiliated with the Designated REALTOR® (as defined in (1) and (2) of the paragraph) in the office where the Designated REALTOR® holds membership, and any other offices of the firm located within the jurisdiction of this board.

For the purpose of this Section, a REALTOR® Member of a Member Association shall be held to be any Member who has a place or places of business within that state or a state contiguous thereto and who, as a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager of a real estate firm, partnership, or corporation, is actively engaged in the real estate profession as defined in Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®. An individual shall be deemed to be licensed with a REALTOR® if the license of the individual is held by the REALTOR®, or by any broker who is licensed with the REALTOR®, or by any entity in which the REALTOR® has a direct or indirect ownership interest and which is engaged in other aspects of the real estate business (except as provided for in Section 2 (a.) (1) hereof) provided that such licensee is not otherwise included in the computation of dues payable by the principal, partner, corporate officer or branch manager of the entity.

A REALTOR® with a direct indirect ownership interest in any entity engaged exclusively in soliciting and/or referring clients and customers to the REALTOR® for consideration on a substantially exclusive basis shall annually file with the Association on a form approved by the association a list of the licensees affiliated with that entity and shall certify that all of the licensees affiliated with the entity are solely engaged in referring clients and customers and are not engaged in listing, selling, leasing, managing, counseling or appraising real property. The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of the Section and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®.

Membership dues shall be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the association who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR® membership in the association. However membership dues shall not be prorated if the licensee held REALTOR® membership during the preceding calendar year.

- (a) The annual dues of REALTOR® Members other than the Designated REALTOR® shall be in such amount as established annually by the Board of Directors.
- (b) Affiliate Members. The annual dues of each Affiliate Member shall be as established annually by the Board of Directors.
- (c) Institute Affiliate Members. The annual dues of each Institute Affiliate Member shall as established in Article II of the Bylaws of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

NOTE: The Institutes, Societies and Councils of the National Association shall be responsible for collecting and remitting dues to the National Association for Institute Affiliate Members ($105). The National Association shall credit $35 to the account of a local association for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is within the assigned territorial jurisdiction of that association, provided, however, if the office location is also within the territorial jurisdiction of a Commercial Overlay Board (COB), the $35 amount will be credited to the COB, unless the Institute Affiliate Member directs that the dues be distributed to the other association. The National Association shall also credit $35 to the account of state associations for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is located within the territorial jurisdiction of the state association. Local and state associations may not establish any additional entrance, initiation fees or dues for Institute Affiliate Members, but may provide service packages to which Institute Affiliate Members may voluntarily subscribe. (Amended 11/2013)

- (d) Public Service Members. The annual dues of each Public Service Member shall be in such amount as established by the Board of Directors.
- (e) Honorary Members. Dues payable, if any, shall be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- (f) Student Members. Dues payable, if any, shall be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Dues Payable. Dues for all Members shall be payable annually in advance on the first day of January. Dues shall be computed from the first day of the month in which a Member is notified of election and shall be prorated for the remainder of the year.

- (a) In the event a sales licensee or licensed or certified appraiser who holds REALTOR® membership is dropped for non-payment of Association dues, and the individual remains with the Designated REALTOR®'s firm, the dues obligation of the "Designated" REALTOR® (as set forth in Article X, Section 2(a)) will be increased to reflect the addition of a non-member licensee. Dues shall be calculated from the first day of the current fiscal year and are payable within thirty (30) days of the notice of termination.

Section 4. Nonpayment of Financial Obligations. If dues, fees, fines, or other assessments including amounts owed to the Association or the Association's Multiple Listing Service are not paid within one (1) month after the due date, the nonpaying Member is subject to suspension at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Two (2) months after the due date, membership of the nonpaying Member may be terminated at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Three (3) months after the due date, membership of the nonpaying Member shall automatically terminate unless within that time the amount due is paid. However, no action shall be taken to suspend or expel a Member for nonpayment of disputed amounts until the accuracy of the amount has been confirmed by the Board of Directors. A former Member who has had his membership terminated for nonpayment of dues, fees, fines, or other assessments duly levied in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of other Rules and Regulations of the Association or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries may apply for reinstatement in a manner prescribed for new applicants for membership, after making payment in full of all accounts due as of the date of termination.

Section 5. Deposits and Expenditures. Deposits and expenditures of funds shall be in accordance with policies established by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Notice of Dues, Fees, Fines, Assessments, and Other Financial Obligations of Members. All dues, fees, fines, assessments, or other financial obligations to the Association or the Association's Multiple Listing Service shall be noticed to the delinquent Association Member in writing setting forth the amount owed and due date.

Section 7. The dues of REALTOR® Members who are REALTOR® Emeriti (as recognized by the National Association), past presidents and past treasurers of the National Association or recipients of the Distinguished Service Award shall be as determined by the board of directors (Amended 11/2013).

NOTE: A Member Association's dues obligation to the National Association is reduced by an amount equal to the amount which the Association is assessed for a REALTOR® Member, times the number of REALTOR® Emeriti (as recognized by the National Association), Past Presidents of the National Association, and recipients of the Distinguished Service Award of the National Association who are REALTOR® Members of the Association. The dues obligation of such individuals to the local Association should be reduced to reflect the reduction in the Association's dues obligation to the National Association. The Association may, at its option, choose to have no dues requirement for such individuals except as may be required to meet the Association's obligation to the State Association with respect to such individuals. It should be noted that this does not affect a "Designated" REALTOR®'s dues obligation to the Association with respect to those licensees employed by or affiliated with the "Designated" REALTOR® who are not Members of the local Association.

ARTICLE XI - OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1. Officers. The elected officers of the Association shall be: a President, a Vice President (who shall be the President-Elect), a Secretary and Treasurer. Additional candidates for the offices to be filled may be placed in nomination by petition signed by at least twenty (20%) percent of the REALTOR® members eligible to vote. Section 6. Vacancies. Vacancies among the Officers and the Board of Directors shall be filled by a simple majority vote of the Board of Directors until the next annual election.

Section 7. Removal of Officers or Directors. In the event that an Officer or Director is deemed to be incapable of fulfilling the duties for which elected, but will not resign from office voluntarily, the Officer or Director may be removed from office under the following procedure:

- (a) A petition requiring the removal of an Officer or Director and signed by not less than one-third of the voting membership or a majority of all Directors shall be filed with the President, or if the President is the subject of the petition, with the next-ranking officer, and shall specifically set forth the reasons the individual is deemed to be disqualified from further service.
- (b) Upon receipt of the petition, and not less than twenty (20) days or more than forty-five (45) days thereafter, a special meeting of the voting membership of the Association shall be held, and the sole business of the meeting shall be to consider the charge against the Officer or Director, and to render a decision on such petition.
- (c) The special meeting shall be noticed to all voting Members at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, and shall be conducted by the President of the Association unless the President's continued service in office is being considered at the meeting. In such case, the next-ranking officer will conduct the meeting of the hearing by the Members. Provided, a quorum is present, a three-fourths vote of the Members present and voting shall be required for removal from office.

Absentee ballots shall plainly state the matter to be voted upon and shall be effective only for the purposes as stated therein and for purposes pursuant to Article XII, Section 5. Absentee ballots are to be opened and counted by the Election Committee prior to the vote for purposes of determining quorum requirements, whoever, under no circumstances is the vote count to be made available to any one until after the vote on the matter at the duly called meeting.

ARTICLE XVI - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the Members present and qualified to vote at any meeting at which a quorum is present, provided the substance of such proposed amendment or amendments shall be plainly stated in the call for the meeting, except that the Board of Directors may, at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, approve amendments to the Bylaws which are mandated by NAR policy.

Section 2. Notice of all meetings at which amendments are to be considered shall be mailed to every Member eligible to vote at least one (1) week prior to the meeting.

Section 3. Amendments to these Bylaws affecting the admission or qualification of REALTOR® and Institute Affiliate Members, the use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® or any alteration in the territorial jurisdiction of the Association shall become effective upon their approval as authorized by the Board of Directors of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 4. ARTICLE XVII – DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Upon the dissolution of this Association, the Board of Directors, after providing for the payment of all obligations, shall distribute any remaining assets to the North Carolina Association of REALTORS® or, within its discretion, to any court non-profit tax exempt organization.

ARTICLE XVIII – MULTIPLE LISTING

Multiple Listing Service Operated as a Separate Corporation Wholly-Owned by the Association

Section 1. Authority. The Association of REALTORS® shall maintain for the use of its Members a Multiple Listing Service which shall be a lawful corporation of the State of North Carolina, all the stock of which shall be owned by the Association of REALTORS®.

Section 2. Purpose. A Multiple Listing Service is a means by which authorized Participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other Participants (acting as subagents, buyer agents, or in other agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); by which cooperation among participants is enhanced; by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized Participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; by which Participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so participants may better serve their clients and the public. Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as a procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

Section 3. Governing Documents. The Board of Directors shall cause any Multiple Listing Service established by it pursuant to this Article to conform its Corporate Charter, Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, and Policies, Practices, and Procedures at all times to the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, and Policies of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 4. Participation. Any REALTOR® of this or any other Board who is a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of a principal, without further qualification, except as otherwise stipulated in these bylaws, shall be eligible to participate in Multiple Listing upon agreeing in writing to conform to the rules and regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto.* However, under no circumstances is any individual or firm, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service “membership” or “participation” unless they hold a current, valid North Carolina real estate broker’s license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property.  Use of information developed by or published by a Board Multiple Listing Service is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant’s licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey “participation” or “membership” or any right of access to information developed by or published by a Board Multiple Listing Service where access to such information is prohibited by law. (Amended 11/08)

Note 1: Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for MLS participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm 'offers or accepts cooperation and compensation' means that the Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the MLS. “Actively” means on a continual and on-going basis during the operation of the Participant's real estate business. The „actively” requirement is not intended to preclude MLS participation by a Participant or potential Participant that operates a real estate business on a part time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS participation to a Participant or potential Participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit an MLS to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the Participant or potential Participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law. The key is that the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit an MLS to deny participation to a Participant or potential Participant that operates a Virtual Office Website (“VOW”) (including a VOW that the Participant uses to refer customers to other Participants) if the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. An MLS may evaluate whether a Participant or potential Participant “actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business” to “offer or accept cooperation and compensation” only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the Participant or potential Participant is in fact not doing so.

The membership requirement shall be applied on a nondiscriminatory manner to all Participants and potential Participants. (Adopted 11/08)

NOTE 2: Generally, Associations of REALTORS®, when there is more than one principal in a real estate firm, define the chief principal officer of the firm as the MLS “Participant”. Brokers or salespersons other than principals are not considered “Participants” in the Service, but have access to and use of the Service, but have access to and use of the Service through the principal(s) with whom they are affiliated.

Section 5. Access to Comparable and Statistical Information. Association Members who are actively engaged in real estate brokerage, management, mortgage financing, appraising, land development or building, but who do not participate in the Multiple Listing Service, are nonetheless entitled to receive, by purchase or lease, information other than current listing information that is generated wholly or in part by the Multiple Listing Service including “comparable” information, “sold” information, and statistical reports. This information is provided for the exclusive use of Association Members and individuals affiliated with Association Members who are also engaged in the real estate business and may not be transmitted, retransmitted, or provided in any manner to any unauthorized individual, office or firm except as otherwise specified in the Multiple Listing Service Rules and Regulations. Association Members who receive such information, either as an Association service or through the Association’s Multiple Listing Service, are subject to the applicable provisions of the Multiple Listing Service Rules and Regulations whether they participate in the Multiple Listing Service or not.

Section 6. Subscribers. Subscribers (or users) of the MLS include non-principal brokers, sales associates and licensed and certified appraisers affiliated with Participants.

ARTICLE XIX
INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES

The Association shall indemnify each and every officer, director, committee member and employee of the Association against any and all expenses incurred from any claim, action or demand on account of or arising out of said person serving in the above capacity by reason of any action taken or omission in his/her capacity as an officer, director, committee member or employee of the Association. The Association shall reimburse each such person for all legal expenses and related costs incurred by said person in defense of same, provided, however, that no such person shall be reimbursed for any expense incurred in connection with any claim, action or liability arising out of his/her own willful or intentional misconduct, gross negligence or in which the person derives an improper personal benefit.

The amount to be paid to any officer, director, committee member or employee under this indemnification shall not exceed the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in connection with this matter as determined by the Board of Directors of the Association and any member of the Board of Directors seeking reimbursement shall not be permitted to vote on the matter. The right of indemnification as herein provided is not exclusive and each and every officer, director, committee member or employee of the Association has the right to pursue any additional remedies as provided by law.

The Association shall not have any obligation to provide reimbursement pursuant to this Article without first considering other sources of reimbursement and any reimbursement shall be limited to the Association's ability to pay from its current operating funds after taking into consideration the obligations which the Association owes to its membership. Under no circumstances shall the Association be required to borrow funds or sell any of its operating assets in order to reimburse an indemnified party pursuant to the Article.

ARTICLE XXX – HARASSMENT POLICY

The members of the CATAWBA VALLEY ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® (“CVAR”) and the MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE OF CATAWBA VALLEY, INC. (“MLSCV”) uphold to a high standard of ethics. No type of harassment shall be tolerated between members and staff. Therefore, any member of CVAR and MLSCV may be reprimanded, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled for harassment of an employee.

HARASSMENT/SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY STATEMENT

Harassment/Sexual Harassment and other types of harassment are illegal conduct and are contrary to the policy of the CATAWBA VALLEY ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® (“CVAR”) and the MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE OF CATAWBA VALLEY, INC. (“MLSCV”). Each and every employee and/or member of CVAR and/or MLSCV is responsible for assuring that they do not engage in harassment/sexual harassment or any other form of harassment.

For purposes of this policy statement, Harassment/Sexual Harassment is defined as all forms of harassment, including sexual harassment, and is defined below as:

- 1) Unwelcome sexual advances;
- 2) Unwelcome requests for sexual acts or favors;
- 3) Other verbal or physical conduct that has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.
- 4) Offensive actions, words, jokes or comments regarding an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, citizenship and any other legally protected right.

Complaint Procedure

Any employee or member who believes he/she has suffered Harassment/Sexual Harassment by any other employee or member, including supervisors and coworkers, or by any member of CVAR and/or MLSCV, or by any guest or visitor of the CVAR and/or MLSCV, must bring the problem to the attention to the first of the following individuals (then to the next named person, if the name person is the alleged accused):

- 1) President of CVAR
- 2) Vice-President of CVAR
- 3) Executive Director of CVAR
- 4) The attorney for CVAR

The complaint does not have to be in writing, although a written complaint is preferred. It is helpful if details of a general description of the harassment along with the dates, times, places and witnesses, if any, to the harassment can be provided.

Complaint Investigation and Confidentiality

All complaints will be investigated promptly by a team comprised of the Vice President, the Executive Director, and the attorney for CVAR. Either of the foregoing will be disqualified to serve if any of them are the alleged accused individual; in which case, the directors of CVAR shall select a person to serve in the place of the disqualified individual.

The identity of the employee or member making the complaint, as well as the identity of the individual accused of Harassment/Sexual Harassment, will be kept strictly confidential. Information regarding the charge of Harassment/Sexual Harassment and the investigation of that charge will not be made known to anyone who is not directly involved either as a party, a witness or a member of the investigatory team. Witnesses interviewed will be provided only such information as is necessary to elicit from them their observations and other relevant information. This Harassment/Sexual Harassment policy does not apply to a member of CVAR or MLSCV who files a complaint over an incident which arises directly or indirectly related to his/her workplace and does not involve an incident of Harassment/Sexual Harassment which occurred while the member is performing duties or using the services of either CVAR or MLSCV.

During the investigation, both the complainant and the accused will be provided a full opportunity to tell their side of the story. Witnesses identified by the complainant or the accused will also be interviewed. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigatory team will prepare a written report of its findings and recommendations for the President of CVAR. Authority for the final resolution of all charges and the determination of appropriate sanctions rests with the President of CVAR. If the President is the accused, then CVAR's directors shall designate a member of the Board who has not been part of the investigatory team to serve in the place of the President.

Discipline

Harassment/Sexual Harassment is serious offense and any employee or member found to have engaged in such conduct is subject to severe discipline, up to and including termination of employment or termination of membership. If a member of the CVAR or the MLSCV is found to have engaged in such conduct, then his/her right to membership may be subject to such disciplinary action as provided by said entity's rules and regulations.

It is contrary to this policy for a supervisor to retaliate against any employee or member who files a charge of Harassment/Sexual Harassment. All possible steps will be taken to eliminate the possibility of retaliation resulting from the filing of a complaint.

In the event a complaint of Harassment/Sexual Harassment is found to totally and completely without basis, appropriate disciplinary measures may be taken against the employee or member who brought the complaint. While this is not intended to discourage any employee or member who believes they have been the victim of Harassment/Sexual Harassment from bringing a complaint, this policy recognizes that a charge of Harassment/Sexual Harassment can cause serious damage to the accused's personal reputation and professional career.

Follow-up

In instances in which Harassment/Sexual Harassment is found to have occurred, a member of the investigatory team will remain in communication with the complainant to find out whether the harassment has ceased or if any retaliation has occurred.

Voluntary Office Romances

It is not contrary to the policy of CVAR and MLSCV for employees and members to date, except in circumstances where one of the employees or members reports either directly or indirectly to the other employee or member. No dating is permitted in such circumstances and a violation of this policy will result in immediate termination.

HARASSMENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

The CATAWBA VALLEY ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® (“CVAR”) and the MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE OF CATAWBA VALLEY, INC. (“MLSCV”) fully support the rights and opportunities of all its directors, committee members, members and employees to work in an environment free from discrimination and without subjugation to harassment/sexual harassment.

The employees and members must work together effectively as a team to accomplish a code of conduct that creates an environment of courtesy and mutual respect. Offensive behavior not only impedes the effectiveness of the joint efforts, but can also create exposure to legal liability.

Harassment/Sexual harassment may be overt or subtle. It includes behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that fails to respect the rights of others, that lowers morale and that, therefore, interferes with the effectiveness of work. Harassment/Sexual harassment may take different forms. One specific form is a demand for sexual favors. Other forms of harassment include:

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| Verbal | Sexual innuendoes, suggestive comments, jokes of a sexual nature, sexual propositions, threats. |
| Non-verbal | Sexually suggestive objects or pictures, graphic commentaries, suggestive or insulting sounds, leering, whistling, obscene gestures. |
| Physical | Unwanted physical contact, including touching, pinching, brushing the body, coerced sexual intercourse, assault. |

Harassment/Sexual harassment does not include occasional compliments or voluntary relationships between members and staff.

Whatever form it takes – verbal, non-verbal or physical, - harassment/sexual harassment is insulting and demeaning to the recipient and cannot be tolerated. Harassment/Sexual harassment of any employee or member, by any employee or member, will not be tolerated. All employees and members will be expected to behave accordingly and take appropriate measures to ensure that such conduct does not occur. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any employee or member who engages in harassment/sexual harassment.

Any director, committee member, member or employee who believes he or she has been the subject of harassment/sexual harassment should report the alleged act immediately to the President of CVAR. If the complaint involves the President, then the complaint should be brought to the attention of the Vice President and, if necessary, then to the Executive Director.
